

Letters to Parents

Table of contents 2nd/3rd year of life

Table of contents

14 | Your child is one year and two months old

The age of discoveries	4	Rest, relaxation, and alone time	21
Practice, practice, practice	4	“This kid is so much work!”	21
Why exercise is so important	6	Parents need rest, relaxation, and alone time, too	21
Consolation is frequently called for	7	Little personal freedoms	23
Observing, imitating, and experimenting	7
Comforting verses	7	A second child?	25
		How to encourage a good future relationship between both children	26
Providing diverse role models	10	A second child is on the way	27
Nurture talents, regardless of gender	10	And when the second child is born	28
Distribution of roles within the family	10
Establishing their own identity	12	By the way ...	30
Acquiring modes of behavior	12	Is your child cross-eyed?	30
		Does the child need shoes now?	30
What little explorers need	14	Riding a bicycle	30
Nature as playground	15
Experiencing the four elements	15
Things that can be moved	16
Playing along, yes — but how?	16

15 | Your child is one year and four months

Little people, big curiosity	4
The limits of independence	5
Children's idea of tidiness vs. parents' idea of tidiness	7
Fun is messy	8
Wishful thinking and reality	10
Sleeping — frequently a nightmare for parents	13
Bedtime	13
When night becomes day	15
Nightmares and night terrors	15
(Over-)challenged parents	17
Sleep aids	18
Speaking and understanding	19
Babbling	19
Interest is the best encouragement	20
Bon appétit!	22
Eating independently	22
Too little or too much?	23
On clearing the plate	25

By the way ...	4
Car rides with your child	5

16 | Your child is one year and six months old

26 Everything can be a game	4
26 The coveted telephone	4
Pancakes, etc.	6
Is your child playing "correctly"?	7
First picture books	7
Practical tips on the subject of playing	9
Playing with peers	10
Shoving, hitting, biting	10
"Mine" isn't always "yours"	13
Restraint is called for	14
Weekends need to be planned	16
"Weekend daddy" and "weekend mommy"	16
Weekend problems?	17
On wanting and not wanting	21
When children are beside themselves	21
Children can't be reasonable yet	21
Wait and stay calm	23

17 | Your child is one year and eight months old

By the way ...

Drops, pills, syrups
Rubber boots
If your child isn't walking yet
Flying

26 Life with two children

26 What if there's jealousy?
26 Already so "big" and yet still little
26 Tips

Sickness is a part of life

Parents as role models
Providing sensitive support during doctors' visits
At home with a sick child
Medication
Practical tips
A cold eight times a year?
Fever is not an indicator of severity
Little accidents
When the child or parents are sick

Differences of opinion on parenting issues

Discipline
No spanking!

4 Their own bodies — incredibly

4 fascinating! 22
7 "Pee" and "poop" 22
9 Playing with their genitals 22
Tips to support your child with potty training 24

By the way ...

11 Your child has disappeared 26
12 Important traffic safety rules for parents of small children 26
13 Vacations with children: very different from vacations without children 26

Rights of the Child:

17 Protection from violence 28
Forms of violence 28
Consequences of violence 28
18 Daily challenges 28
19 Children have rights 29
21 Participating empowers children 31

18 | Your child is one year and ten months old

Learning to talk

Experiencing language
Feeling language
One language? Or two?

Parents stand up for their children

Being tolerant and considerate
On the go with children

TV, smartphone, tablet ...

Too young to thoughtfully watch TV
What about the parents' TV watching habits?
Apps for children?

One hundred meters in two hours

The world is big and wonderful
On dealing with animals
Treasures, big and small

4 Keeping teeth healthy

4 Beloved sweets 21
6 Accepting even unpleasant feelings 21
6 Healthy snacks 21
Dental hygiene has become a habit 22
8 Thumb-sucking and pacifiers 23
8 From baby bottle to cup 25
9

By the way ...

12 Accidents with consequences 26
12 Sun can be dangerous 26

19 | Your child is two years old

On speaking and thinking	4	From the diaper to the “restroom”	23
Developing language comprehension	4	This is how you can support your child’s potty training	24
I am “ME”!	6
Emotional ups and downs	6	By the way ...	26
Neither “nice” nor “naughty” but normal!	11	Careful: Poison!	26
Setting limits	11	Accidents	26
When are limits necessary?	12	When to see a doctor	27
Reviewing and defusing conflicts	13	Open your eyes!	27
Parents have needs, too	14
Children don’t need perfect parents	15
Tips for everyday life with a (defiantly) demanding child	16
Preventing stress at mealtimes	17
Eating should be a pleasure, not a chore	18
Notes on nutrition that parents should be aware of	19
Promoting independence	20
Trust creates self-confidence	20
Children need firsthand experiences	22
Tips on dressing	22

20 | Your child is two years and three months old

Playing is life; life is playing	4	Parent groups — a lot of things are easier as a team	23
Toys and play objects	4	Living together — learning from each other	23
Making your own playdough — with a little help from eager young friends!	7
Broken toys — no big deal	8	By the way ...	25
Less is more	11	If your child needs new shoes	25
“Game rules” for parents	11	Eating with pleasure	25
If you’re worried about your child’s play behavior	12	Snacks and eating before mealtimes	25
		“Bedtime treats” are bad for teeth	26
		Right-handed or left-handed?	26
Giving girls and boys the same developmental opportunities	14	Rights of the child:
The small difference between girls and boys	14	Taking part in discussions, activities, and decision-making	28
Exploring their own bodies	15	Taking part from the very beginning	28
		Having a say does not mean deciding on one’s own	28
Conflicts are a part of life	16	All decisions affect children	30
Explaining the situation	16	Hearings of children in judicial processes	30
When conflicts accumulate	17	Children have rights	31
Separated parents stay parents	19
After the separation or divorce	19
Parental authority and parental custody	21

21 | Your child is two years and six months old

Living with children	4	By the way ...	26
A little personal space for everyone	4	Small children's sense of time	26
All around your own four walls	7	Be careful while swimming!	26
Some ideas for living spaces	8	Be careful with loft beds	27
		Shopping with your child	27
Being sick and getting well	10
Loving care is the best medicine	10
Everything's a "tummy ache" for little children	10
Caring for a sick child	10
Our child has to go to the hospital	13
During a hospital visit	13
Back home!	14
Falling asleep and waking at night	15
But what if sleep won't come?	15
Waking at night	18
All kinds of fears	18
What you as parents can do to help your anxious child	20
Treating each other with respect	22
Clean and tidy children	22
Respecting your child's "no"	22

22 | Your child is two years and nine months old

Children love other children — to play and fight with	4	Small children and traffic safety	26
Children learn from other children	4	How do small children behave in traffic situations?	27
Playmates are a new challenge for the whole family	4	By the way ...	28
Siblings fight and love each other	6	“Room time”	28
Fighting is a learned skill	8	Children and TV	28
What causes aggressive behavior?	9	Other tables, other rules	29
A child who bites or hits is not a bad child	11
What to do when children fight	11
Help!	12
Where can you meet other children to play with?	12
Family-supplementing childcare	14
Quality and consistency	14
Childcare opportunities for small children	15
Saying goodbye isn't easy	17
Why? What for? How? — The “age of questions”	21
Each child has an individual way of speaking	23
Parents' speech and behavior	25

23 | Your child is three years old

Jealousy is a normal part of living together	4	Imagination and creativity	21
Finding their place in the family	4	Experimenting with colors	21
When one sibling requires special attention	5	Producing sounds, singing, and making music	22
Hidden jealousy	6	How you can further encourage your child's enjoyment of painting	22
Parents' behavior	7
Practical tips for dealing with jealous children	8
Twins or multiples	9
Doing justice to twins — no easy task!	11
Festivals throughout the year	12
Rituals as life companions	13
Everyday religious festivals, rituals, and celebrations	14
The magical world of children	16
Reality and fantasy	17
Is your child making things up?	18
Narrate stories and picture books for your child	19
What stories and picture books are suitable?	19
Telling stories instead of watching TV	19

Click here for an index of keywords:

www.letters-to-parents.ch/index2

Pro Juventute's Letters to Parents – your expert companion from birth to the beginning of school

These practical guides for parents contain tips and suggestions that are specifically tailored to the age and developmental stage of the child. With information composed by a team of experts, these letters center on topics such as care and hygiene, nutrition, development, child rearing, as well as the role of the mother and father, relationship issues, and family-supplementing childcare. Pro Juventute's Letters to Parents cover the first six years of your child's life. In many communities and institutions, these letters are presented to new parents free of charge. They can also be ordered directly from Pro Juventute.

Pro Juventute's Letters to Parents are produced by Pro Juventute with technical input from the following specialists:

Carmen Amrein, Early childhood educator and director of a daycare center | Marianne Botta Diener, Dipl. Food Engineer ETH and Dipl. Teacher ETH | Sepp Holtz, MD, Pediatrician with his own practice, Senior Physician in the Department for Developmental Pediatrics at University Children's Hospital Zurich | Aja Schinzel, Mothers' and Fathers' Counselor HFD | Heidi Simoni, PhD, Psychologist specializing in psychotherapy FSP, Director of Practical Research at the Marie Meierhofer Institute for the Child

Specialist units and professional associations

Professional Association of Lactation Consultants in Switzerland | City of Zurich's Office for Gender Equality | Forum for Practical Pediatrics | Binational Interest Group | manneburo züri (men's bureau Zurich) | Marie Meierhofer Institute for the Child | Couples Counseling, counties Hinwil and Pfäffikon ZH | The Swiss Competence and Coordination Centre for Accident Prevention | Swiss Society of Pediatrics | Swiss Association of Midwives | kibesuisse - Swiss Childcare Association | Swiss Association of Mothers' and Fathers' Counselors | Center of Dental Medicine, University of Zurich | Center for Small Children, Winterthur

Imprint

Publisher: Pro Juventute, Letters to Parents
Director: Monique Ben-Shmuel
Program Manager: Noa Stemmer-Holtz
Editor: Susan Edthofer, Noa Stemmer-Holtz
Translation: Birgit Schmidt-Rösemann
Editing: Melissa Snyder
Photo: istockphoto.com
Cartoons: Claudia de Weck
Cartoon coloring: Dominik Bontus
Graphics: Valentin Stucki

© Pro Juventute, Zürich, 2022

Information and orders

Pro Juventute, Letters to Parents
Thurgauerstrasse 39, Postfach, 8050 Zürich
Telephone 044 256 77 33
contact@projuventute.ch

Order directly from our online store

www.projuventute.ch/letters-to-parents

Changes in address

Notify Pro Juventute if your address changes to ensure seamless delivery: projuventute.ch/change-address

Donate now to support Pro Juventute's projects for children and young people in Switzerland!

Account for donations: 80-3100-6
IBAN CH71 0900 0000 8000 3100 6

Now with TWINT!

1. Scan the QR code with the TWINT app
2. Confirm amount and donation

projuventute.ch

PUBL-7005

Presenting Partner

